Doran Grenache Blanc 2018

Swartland: Holy Catfish, Batman, this is rich! Deep gold, slightly marmalade / oxidative notes, very full-bodied, still fresh and mouthwatering, bags of peach, ginger & honey favours and complexity. So loooooooong too.....just beware of standing up

Description Deberg Swartland

Harvesting/Cellar:

This cultivar chosen because of its affinity with the warmer climate experienced on Doran Vineyards.

No crop control was applied, so the crop was generous!

Free run juice after crushing into old French barrels. Malo-lactic fermentation in barrels.

Maturation:

Wine left on its lees for 14 months before bottling.

Winemaker's notes:

A full bodied wine with a crisp and lingering acidity. There is apple and pear on the nose and is a well rounded and integrated wine. Certain to be a wow wine!
